

LONG AWAITED DREAM ON THE WAY...

I am humbled to announce, my passion and long awaited dream is going to come true in a few weeks' time. That is starting Snehan Home for neglected old and sick destitute people in Pondicherry. This home is exclusively for old destitute male only. It's a short stay home, where sick or wounded ones get admitted for care & support. Once they get recovered and refreshed and they can fly back home or choose their destiny.

This project requires significant resources; therefore we humbly seek your valuable support by purchasing necessary items such as home appliances, kitchen appliances, office equipment, furniture, beds, mattresses and others. We also need passionate volunteers in this mission.

RENOVATION WORK IS GOING ON WITH LOTS OF ENERGY

Snehan Home, renovation work is going on with lots of energy. We are trying our best to mobilize kitchen equipment, home appliances, cots & mattresses but nothing is coming through. The needs are so much, we look up to every individual thinking they will support us for this noble cause. Meanwhile, we have purchased used scrap materials such as steel tables, cupboards, fans, chairs and others. Renovating and repairing them for our use.

You can see in the image where a broken fan was repaired and turning the scrap material to new office equipment. If you have any unused household items please call us, we can make them happy to use them in our home.

RENEWING THE SECONDHAND MATERIALS FOR DAILY USE

Joyfully progressing the renovation work at Snehan Home. We are working hard to bring little comfort to the fragile destitute in Pondicherry. This home is exclusively for the abandoned old people who suffer destitution in their last stage of life. The needy would be given residential care and support with love. Since we don't have any funding at the movement, we are terming the best to save and buy used equipment's and things to setup up Snehan Home. We purchased used tables, cupboards, racks, chairs file cabin and others for our daily use. We renew them with colorful paints and replacing broken parts. This gives immense joy, for we don't waste any resource but use them 100%.

SETTING UP BEAUTIFUL PLACE FOR SNEHAN BENEFICIARIES

Almost last 75 day, we are rejuvenating this place for the most wanted people in our life, they are neglected grandpas' from the streets. Snehan Home is getting ready for the abandoned old men. We are planting grass lawn for them to site and relax and enjoy the beautify of nature. Study says, attending to the daily task of gardening may provide an outlet for purposeful activity, which is associated with increased self-esteem, creativity and mental stimulation. Soon our rehabilitated grandpas' will take care of this beautiful garden as their hobby.

THE PEACEFUL TIME WHILE WATERING THE GARDEN

Snehan Home had colourful visitors today to celebrate their birthdays at our campus. Ten ladies coming together to relax and spend cheerful evening with one another is a happy movement in their life. Ladies voluntarily taking up the water pipes to water the lane and the plants was interesting to see. They expressed the quietness of soul while watering the garden. Like them many would be coming to Snehan Home to experience the quietness and to support our mission of helping helpless.
